

MOCK COLLEGE DANCE AUDITION

for high school students

Mock College Audition with Anthony Ferro and Nancy Lushington
Marymount Manhattan College

Parent Seminar on College Admissions with Education Consultant Dr. Elizabeth Stone

Monday, January 16, 2012
8:30am to 12:30pm

San Mateo High School Dance Studio
506 North Delaware Street, San Mateo
(adjacent to the San Mateo Performing Arts Center)

Pre-registration is encouraged.
Space is limited.

MarymountManhattan
a college of the liberal arts

Marymount Manhattan College in New York City invites Bay Area High School dancers in grades 9 – 11

MOCK COLLEGE DANCE AUDITION

- ✓ learn about auditioning for college dance programs
- ✓ experience an audition
- ✓ receive feedback on your dance technique and performance skills from college faculty

All dancers participate in a ballet class and learn a modern dance combination. Students may register on-site to present a solo of 1-2 minutes in length in the dance styles of her/his choice, i.e. ballet, modern, or jazz; it need not be choreographed by the student. Solo performances will be limited by time availability and may not be available to all students who wish to perform. Bring a CD with only your dance music.

MONDAY, JANUARY 16, 2012

Registration begins at 8:30 am

Mock Audition 9:00 am – 12:00 pm

Parent Seminar on College Admissions 9:00 – 10:15 am

Parent & Student Feedback and Q & A 12:00 – 12:30 pm

COST: $15.00 per dancer; no charge for parents attending with a dancer

REGISTER: www.theeducationplanner.com/payment

DRESS: ballet shoes and fitted dance attire

DANCE INSTRUCTORS ARE INVITED TO OBSERVE

(12th graders who wish to audition for Fall 2012 admission to Marymount Manhattan should email dance@mmm.edu or check www.mmm.edu for registration information)

Questions? Call 650-579-6180 or email info@theeducationplanner.com

Co-sponsored with College Admissions Counselor
Dr. Elizabeth Stone

www.theeducationplanner.com